

Answer all questions.

Q2. (200 words.) Discuss the security and availability requirements for a system and business methods intended to be used by a company acting as a trusted third party which will charge customers for certificating public cryptography keys to be used within a stocks and shares trading network involving many individual shareholders and many stockbrokers. [30 marks.]

Marks awarded: /30

Answer all questions.

Q3. (150 words) If the business described in Q2 also provides a key revocation service, discuss additional system requirements for this. Discuss limits to the guarantees which should be offered by the operator to users of a key revocation service. [20 marks]

Marks awarded: /20

Q4. (200 words) Based upon the purposes and the file access requirements of a named Linux program requiring setuid permission state why setuid is needed, and discuss the differences between discretionary access control (DAC) and mandatory access control (MAC) as multi-user or multi-service access partitioning operating system platform security approaches. [30 marks]

Answer all questions.

Q4 answer

Marks awarded: /30

Total marks for assignment 1.1 /100